From TikTok virality to performing with JJ Lin: violinist Jocelyn Ng and her passion for creativity

Her pathway has not been all sunshine and roses; Jocelyn remembers grappling with the unpredictable nature of freelancing in her line of work. She's had to take chances and create opportunities for herself, rather than relying on others to provide her with opportunities.

Finding stability and security as a full-time musician with MDC, Jocelyn's love for the artform extends beyond playing for an online audience; not only has she played in orchestras, but even at events for well-known brands like Chopard and Tatler Asia. Most notably, she also performed for renown Singaporean singer JJ Lin's 'JJ20' world tour.
